

The Supplemental Security Income (SSI) Financial Review The Basics of PER

After you win your disability claim with Social Security for Supplemental Security Income (SSI), the next step is the financial interview to determine how much monthly SSI benefits you are entitled to. This financial interview is called "Pre-Effectuation Review Conference" (PERC). Since SSI is based on your financial need and there are financial restrictions on your assets and household income to receive SSI, PERCs are conducted before SSI payments begin to make sure that you are still financially eligible for benefits and to update any other information about you.

About a month after you have been notified that you are approved for SSI benefits, you will . . . continue reading.

Announcing our New Ebook: Your Guide Through the Social Security Disability Maze

Happy Memorial Day! A Tribute to Our Fallen Soldiers

Often many people confuse Veteran's Day and Memorial Day. Veterans Day is dedicated to celebrating the service of all service members, while Memorial Day is specifically to honor those who have died while serving our country in the armed forces. We want to take a moment and honor their memory and the sacrifice they and their families have made so that we may live in a free country. You are remembered.
