

Three Mistakes To Avoid When Applying For Social Security Disability

Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) is a federal aid program designed to provide financial assistance to those who are physically disabled and therefore restricted in their ability to be employed and earn their livelihood. SSDI benefits help make it possible for a disabled worker to maintain a home, pay their utility bills, put food on the table, and pay for other necessary expenses. The process of proving that a worker is eligible to receive SSDI benefits, however, is complex. Many applications are denied.

So what can you do to improve the chances of your application being approved? The Khaki Law Firm has some advice on mistakes to avoid when seeking Social Security Disability Insurance approval:

The Khaki Law Firm Earns a Top Spot on Law Firm 500 List

The Khaki Law Firm has once again earned a top spot on the Law Firm 500. This year, the law firm ranked 11th overall on the list, with 827% growth over the past three years.

The Law Firm 500 is an annual list which showcases the top 250 fastest growing law firms in the U.S. The honorees are ranked based on their percentage of revenue growth over a three-year period. The law firms must also demonstrate innovation, operational excellence, and a commitment to client service.

The Khaki Law Firm's Founding Attorney and Owner Sara Khaki attributes the success of her firm to its client-focused approach and strong team of advocates: "Since opening The Khaki Law Firm in 2013, our team has helped hundreds of claimants navigate the legal maze that is social security disability and workers' compensation. I credit the law firm's growth on the trust and rapport between The Khaki Law Firm and our clients, as well as the level of trust between the members of The Khaki Law Firm team. I am so proud of our accomplishments and I am honored to once again be included on the Law Firm 500 list."

Sara Khaki and The Khaki Law Firm were recognized at the Law Firm 500 Conference & Awards Gala at the Westin Lake Resort and Spa in Las Vegas, Nevada. The conference took place earlier this month. The Khaki Law Firm's Hearing Advocate Patrice Callahan, Firm Administrator Stacey Zimmerman, and Firm Intake Specialist Holly Casey joined Sara Khaki in accepting the award.
